Give God Your Unconditional "Yes"

If I were to pull up to your house, knock on your door, and say "come with me", what would you do? I suspect the first question you'd ask is "where are we going?" What if I wouldn't tell you, and said "just trust me". Would you still get in the car? It's ok if your answer is "no". It's kind of a weird question. But I'll bet there are a small group of people who, if they did the same thing, you'd get in the car and put your life in their hands without question. The destination wouldn't matter, because you trust them that much.

"But Ruth replied, 'Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God.'" (Ruth 1:16). Ruth probably knew their destination of Bethlehem...back to where Naomi and her late husband left from those many years ago. But Ruth didn't really know much else. There were many unanswered questions, but come what may, Naomi and Ruth would stand together. Trust, love and loyalty led Ruth to give an unconditional "yes" without knowing the details.

God is looking for our unconditional "yes". As we walk with Jesus, we will grow in trust, but we also step out in faith, having experienced the love of God. Say "yes" to wherever God wants to take you.
