How To Study the Bible

Guidance, wisdom, instruction, love, but most of all, the story of Jesus and the plan of salvation unfolds in the Bible. Last Sunday, I shared some tools to help us study the Bible for ourselves. Here they are.

1. Choose Your Translation. You need a Bible translation that you will read and understand. We recommend the New International Version (NIV), but there are many great ones!

2. Choose Your Plan. Without a plan, you plan to fail. What's your plan to read and study the Bible?

3. Understand the Context. It helps to know the bigger story. One way to do that is get a study Bible and read the introduction to each Book. You can pick up a Basic NIV Study Bible on Amazon for about $20 (or talk to me).

4. Read Slowly and Ask Questions.
Here's some questions to ask (SPECK acrostic)
i. Is there a SIN to be avoided?
ii. Is there a PROMISE to be claimed?
iii. Is there an EXAMPLE to follow?
iv. Is there a COMMAND to obey?
v. Is there something to KNOW about God?

5. Pray for God to Speak to You and Apply what He Shows You. God wants to speak to YOU through His Word.
