You Are Chosen

The Cross is our focus as we approach Good Friday. It is the conduit of our salvation, as Jesus took our sin upon Himself so we wouldn't have to bear the weight or the penalty. Thanks be to God!

Scripture says; "For we know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that he has chosen you, because our gospel came to you not simply with words but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and deep conviction." (1 Thessalonians 1:4-5a). What a great message we proclaim! That you are loved by the Creator of the universe. You are chosen to be His child. He not only loves you...He wants you in His family. The last part of this verse reminds us that the good news about Jesus...the gospel...is not just mental agreement with a set of beliefs. It comes with power...to heal, to forgive, to save, to transform. It is active and life directing as the Holy Spirit now lives in each believer giving us strength to face the day. It comes with "deep conviction". The New Living Translation puts it this way; "...for the Holy Spirit gave you full assurance that what we said was true."

All available for you and I today! This is what Easter is all about!

For fun...

I was visiting my son the other night when I asked if I could borrow a newspaper. "Dad, this is the 21st century," he said. "I don't waste my money on newspapers. But if you like, you can borrow my iPad." I can tell you this: That spider never knew what hit him. —Adam Joshua Smargon. RD Issue: December 2012
